In the first reading, Barnabas introduces Saul to the Apostles in Jerusalem. In the second reading, John teaches that we remain in Jesus by keeping his commandment to love one another.

We can do as Jesus ask, through our donations to our St. Vincent de Paul Society. The need is great and your support is appreciated.

Could You Help? The Martha's of St. Anthony's

We are looking to form a group of women and men who would be available during day light hours to assist those in need within our parish. This could be a ride to Mass, the store, a communion visit, etc..

We will be meeting on Tuesday, May 7th, at 1:00 p.m. at the rectory to discuss what we think the needs are.

Please pray about it, and if you would be interested in hearing more, please join us. All are welcome! If you have questions, please call us at the rectory at 468-6101.

WELCOME

A warm welcome to all of you who have come to worship with us. If you are visiting, we are honored by your presence. If you are interested in becoming a member, please call the rectory at 573-468-6101.

Dear St. Anthony's Parish Family

There are things about my mother, my sisters, and my dog, which I find annoying.

My mother, when she chews gum, makes a series of loud popping sounds every fifteen seconds or so. She can't stop doing it. It's a habit. I find that annoying.

One of my sisters, Cathy, when she was younger, used to quietly - yet loud enough so that you could hear it - mouth the words of whatever book she was reading. It always sounded like she was mouthing to herself, "pitapata badudah pitapata badudah..." and her sounds made me clench my teeth and want to scream. I found that very annoying.

My other sister, Wendy, when she was younger, used to get up every Saturday morning early to practice the drums. Her room was just underneath mine. It woke me up. I told her I didn't like it. She did it anyway. I found that very inconsiderate and annoying.

Dash wakes me up every night around 2 a.m. to go outside. He also likes to bite my face as a sign of affection. Sometimes that bothers me.

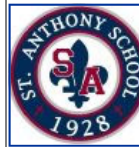

There were things about my father, who passed away in 1997, that I found very annoying as well. My father smoked about ten Churchill size cigars a day. His clothes, house, and person was permeated with the smell of Hoyo de Monterey cigars. I found that odor a bit nauseating.

Now that my father is gone, I miss his stinky cigar smell. It was his trademark. It was the sign of his presence, but now he's gone.

When my mother dies, I will miss her gum-popping. I have grown to love the sound she makes because it is her sound. One day I will long to hear that sound. I don't live near Wendy or Cathy anymore. But when I visit them, Wendy still plays the drums early in the morning, and Cathy still makes the same sounds when she reads. But now, because I love my sisters so much, what once annoyed me makes me smile. One day, Dash will be too old and tired to walk up and down the steps at night and he will be too tired to play-bite me. When that day comes, I will be very sad.

My message to you: Reconsider those things that your spouse, parent or child does that annoy you. Those quirky imperfections of theirs-- learn to love those quirks now. One day you will miss them. or does not Christ Our Lord love you even with your imperfections? Indeed, He does! Therefore, let us learn from Christ how to love one another, not merely despite our imperfections, but, dearest brothers and sisters in Christ, truly because of those imperfections.

Love one another.
