2026 Dinner Auction Results

Net Profit	$59,353.72
Fund a Need	$11,950.00

We are so very grateful for the support of our parishioners, our school families, and the business community.

This is the biggest fund raiser of the year, and could not be done without the countless hours of committee members and volunteers.

We look forward to next year's dinner auction which will be held on Saturday, March 14, 2027. For the past several years the auction has been a sell out. If you attended, thank you. If you have never joined us please do so next year! Again, thank you all!

The 2026 Dinner Auction Committee

WELCOME

A warm welcome to all of you who have come to worship with us. If you are visiting, we are honored by your presence. If you are interested in becoming a member, please call the rectory at 573-468-6101.

Pastor's Pen

Today's reading from Matthew's Gospel comes after a discourse in which Jesus reproaches people who have witnessed his mighty deeds yet still lack belief. In this context, today's Gospel explains the reason for this unbelief and reveals what is necessary for faith.

Today's Gospel also continues to enhance our understanding of discipleship as last week's Gospel did. Jesus first prays in thanksgiving to God who has made himself known to Jesus' disciples. He praises God who has made himself known to the "little ones" and not to the wise and learned. As in other recent readings from Matthew's Gospel, a contrast is made here between the unbelieving Pharisees, who are wise and learned, and the faithful disciples, tax collectors, and sinners with whom Jesus keeps company.

The second part of this reading calls to our attention the unity between the Father and the Son. God has made himself known through Jesus, and in knowing Jesus, we come to know the Father. In Jesus' life and in his person, God reveals himself to us.

In the concluding sentences of today's Gospel, Jesus' teaching is again contrasted to the teaching of the Pharisees. This common theme of Matthew's Gospel probably reflects tension that existed between Jesus and the Pharisees and between the Pharisees and the community of Christians for whom Matthew wrote. Pharisaic Judaism became the predominant form of Judaism after the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem about 70 A.D. Here that tension is expressed as alternative paths of holiness. The careful observance of the Mosaic law taught by the Pharisees could be experienced by some as difficult and burdensome. In contrast, Jesus' way of holiness is presented as uncomplicated and even restful.

As we celebrate our freedoms in America this week-end, let us not forget our blessings.

We are able to gather as a Faith Community to worship our Lord and receive him in the Eucharist.

Let us show who we are as Christians, by aiding those with their basic needs.

A gift to St. Vincent de Paul is a way you can show God's love to others.

Our Thanks Offering

Due to early submission dates, the offertory will be in an upcoming bulletin.
