Sunday Connection

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next Sunday, however, are designated as solemnities, special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith. Today, on the first Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast invites us to consider what we believe about God, who has revealed himself to us in the Trinity—one God in three persons.

The verses of today's Gospel come near the end of Jesus' long discourse at the Last Supper. In the early part of this discourse, as we saw last week on Pentecost, Jesus offers assurances to the disciples. Even though he must leave the disciples, he tells them that they will have a future because of the help he will send them in the Holy Spirit. In this section he focuses more on the shape of the future, which will include Jesus' victory over the world that they will share in. The disciples of Jesus cannot know the future. They can only know that, whatever shape the future takes, they will not have to face it alone. They have the Spirit of Truth, who will continue to provide the teaching of Jesus in the future.

Reading this passage on Trinity Sunday reinforces our understanding of the unity shared by the members of the Trinity. Although the idea of one God in three persons remains a mystery, we have the assurance that, as Jesus and the Father share all, Jesus and the Spirit share all.

School News

Incoming Parents & Volunteers:

A reminder to incoming parents and volunteers, you must complete the Prevent and Protect workshop and background check to volunteer in our school. This consist of watching a video and answering questions as well as completing a background check.

This is completed online. You may pick up an instructional sheet at the school or parish office to register. his is an Archdiocesan requirement. There will be NO Exceptions!

If you have questions, please contact Marcia at the rectory office.

During summer break, Tammy will be in the office on Wednesday's, from 7:00 AM-3:00 PM.

You may of course leave a message on the school answering machine and she will get back with you.
