Sunday Connection

To all of our Mothers,

May God bless you in your day to day life.

May he give you strength, courage and compassion.

May he give you guidance, faith and understanding.

May he lead you in your important role of Motherhood.

May you have respite laughter, and support when needed.

But most of all, may God bless you abundantly today and everyday.

Happy Mothers Day to you all!

“The loveliest masterpiece of the heart of God is the heart of a mother.”

-St. Therese of Lisieux

A Note from the Principal

It's hard to believe that school will be finished in a few short weeks. We have had an awesome year and wouldn't be able to thrive without the support of our church family. I'd like to take this time to thank those who have volunteered around the grounds, donated money, sponsored a student so they could attend St. Anthony School, or just checked in to see what was needed. You are GREATLY appreciated! Our enrollment for next year is going up so please continue to pass the word about our school.
