St. Vincent de Paul Society

Have you ever sat down at meal time, in your home that is heated and cooled depending on the weather and thought about what it would be like to not have the heat or cooling? Or, how about not having food for the meal?

This is a daily occurrence for families in our community. Can you imagine a family with children who can not figure out how to feed them? Or, what about the elderly on fixed income that have to decide between eating and getting their medication.

Every donation you give to St. Vincent de Paul can make the difference in someone's life.

WELCOME

A warm welcome to all of you who have come to worship with us. If you are visiting, we are honored by your presence. If you are interested in becoming a member, please call the rectory at 573-468-6101.

Sunday Connection

As we continue to read from Mark's Gospel, our Lectionary skips a chapter that helps set the context for today's reading. If we were to read the sections skipped (chapter 11 and part of chapter 12), we would hear about Jesus' entry into Jerusalem, his cleansing of the Temple, and the questioning of Jesus' authority by the chief priests, scribes, and elders. The context, therefore, for this Gospel is Jesus' growing exposure before the Jewish authorities. Jesus is being questioned and tested by the Jewish authorities, yet the scribe who addresses Jesus in today's Gospel seems to be an admirer; he is not testing Jesus.

The question posed in today's Gospel requires Jesus to interpret the Law of Moses. The Mosaic Law consists of the Ten Commandments and many additional commandments, numbering into the hundreds. For a devout Jew, adherence to the Mosaic Law is an expression of faithfulness to God's covenant with Israel. The ranking of these commandments was regularly debated among the teachers of the Law.

Jesus was not the only Jewish religious teacher to connect these two commandments, love of God and love of neighbor. Both of these commandments were central elements of the religious tradition that Jesus learned from his Jewish community. Indeed, these commandments continue to be central aspects of contemporary Jewish religious understanding. Jesus' response to his questioners proposed an integral connection between these two aspects of the Jewish Law. Love of God finds its expression in our love for our neighbor. Many believe, however, that this connection was heard in a new and fresh way when spoken by Jesus.

The scribe who questions Jesus in today's Gospel engages in a positive dialogue with Jesus. He agrees with Jesus' teaching that the commandments to love God and love neighbor stand above the commandment to offer worship and sacrifice in the Temple. With this dialogue, Jesus appears to close the debate with the Jewish authorities. Mark reports that no one dared to question Jesus further.

This past week we celebrated Red Ribbon week. This is the week we remind students to remain Drug Free. Each day the students were able to come dressed as different characters from a movie, their chosen career, team up against drugs in their favorite jersey, and wear their sunglasses to shade out drugs.

Our students also had the Mission Carnival on October 31st. All proceeds from the Mission Carnival will be donated to the Charity/Mission work of their choice.

As always, we thank you for the support you give to our school.
