FOOD FOR THOUGHT

This week's Gospel speaks of how Jesus' disciples are to conduct themselves as they await the Kingdom of Heaven. In the preceding passages and in last week's Gospel, Jesus taught that there is no way to predict the coming of the Kingdom of Heaven. His disciples must, therefore, remain vigilant and ready to receive the Son of Man at any time.

Jesus' parable talks about Christian discipleship using economic metaphors. Before he leaves on a journey, the master entrusts to his servants a different number of talents, giving to each according to their abilities. A talent is a coin of great value. Upon the master's return, he finds that the first and second servants have doubled their money, and both are rewarded. The third servant, however, has only preserved what was given to him because he was afraid to lose the money. He has risked nothing; he did not even deposit the money in a bank to earn interest. This servant is punished by the master, and his talent is given to the one who brought the greatest return.

Read in light of last week's parable of the wise and foolish bridesmaids, this parable teaches that God's judgment will be based on the service we render to God and to one another in accordance with the gifts that God has given to us. Our gifts, or talents, are given to us for the service of others. If we fail to use these gifts, God's judgment on us will be severe. On the other hand, if we make use of these gifts in service to the Kingdom of Heaven, we will be rewarded and entrusted with even more responsibilities.

This Gospel reminds us that Christian spirituality is not passive or inactive. Our life of prayer helps us to discern the gifts that have been given to us by God. This prayer and discernment ought to lead us to use our gifts in the service of God and our neighbor. God's grace allows us to share in the work of serving the Kingdom of Heaven.

DAILY ADVENT REFLECTIONS FROM FORMED

Beginning the First Sundays of Advent, November 28, FORMED will send a prayer and one small resolution to your inbox each morning through Christmas Day. As the season progresses, you'll be invited to revisit earlier responses and consider how God has been faithful in your own life.

GO TO THE PARISH WEBSITE, CLICK THE LINK TO FORMED and SIGN UP TODAY! It's free!

Information & Happenings

LADIES ADVENT BY CANDLELIGHT

Sunday, November 29th - 5:00 PM

All ladies of the parish are invited to get a table together for Advent by Candlelight.

Each table should have a Hostess who will be in charge of the table place settings and any decorations they wish to add.

The parish will provide tea, coffee and wine. Having a head count is extremely important. The deadline to RSVP with your table and head count is Tuesday, November 24th so that we can plan the seating and drinks. All hostess's will be able to get in by 4:00 PM to set up. We can accommodate 10 tables with 8 or 10 to a table.

We ask each lady joining us to bring a covered dish to share with the other ladies attending.

This is a great way to start off your Advent and have fellowship with the other women of the parish.

There will be a guest speaker, music and prayer.

If you have never joined us, please consider doing so as it is a wonderful evening.

PLEASE RSVP TO THE RECTORY OFFICE.

Thank you!
