St. Vincent de Paul Society

The Census Bureau reported that rents have increased 3.8 percent — the largest jump since 2011 — with about half of renters spending more than 30 percent of their income on housing. Utility bills are also rising steeply; natural gas prices are up 13.8 percent and electricity 6.2 percent compared with last year. With wages not keeping up with the cost of living, St Vincent de Paul is getting more & more calls for assistance.

Please consider making a donation. Thank you!

The rectory office will be closed Thursday, November 27th for Thanksgiving and also on Friday, November 28th.

We wish you a blessed Thanksgiving and hope you enjoy the time with your families.

See you on Monday, December 1st.

WELCOME

A warm welcome to all of you who have come to worship with us. If you are visiting, we are honored by your presence. If you are interested in becoming a member, please call the rectory at 573-468-6101.

Sunday Connection

Today as a Church, we conclude our liturgical year and celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. The Gospel we proclaim shows the great mystery of our faith: In the moment of his crucifixion, Jesus is shown to be King and Savior of all.

Luke's Gospel has been loaded with surprises: the poor are rich, sinners find salvation, the Kingdom of God is found in our midst. Here we see the greatest surprise of all. We are confronted with the crucified Jesus, whom faith tells us is King and Savior of all. The irony is that the inscription placed on the cross, perhaps in mockery, contains the profoundest of truth. As the leaders jeer, the thief crucified by his side recognizes Jesus as Messiah and King, and finds salvation.

Jesus is King, but not the kind of king we might have imagined or expected. His kingship was hidden from many of his contemporaries, but those who had the eyes of faith were able to see. As modern disciples of Jesus, we, too, struggle at times to recognize Jesus as King. Today's Gospel invites us to make our own judgment. With eyes of faith, we, too, recognize that Jesus, the crucified One, is indeed King and Savior of all.

Reminder:

Thanksgiving Day Mass will be at 9:00 AM.

School News

Reminder: There will be no school from November 26th through November 28th for Thanksgiving break. We hope you enjoy your time with your family.
