All Saints

From the first centuries after Christ, Christians who died a martyr's death were considered saints, who live in God's presence forever. Every year, on the anniversary of the martyrs' deaths, Christians would visit their tombs and celebrate the Eucharist. This practice grew throughout the centuries to include remembering other outstanding Christians on the days they died. Soon the entire calendar was filled with memorials of the saints. In the ninth century, Pope Gregory IV designated November 1 as the day to remember all the saints living in God's presence.

All are welcome to join us on Sunday's.

We pray the rosary every Sunday at 10:45 AM before 11:00 AM Mass.

We hope that you will be able to join us in this most prayerful time. You don't have to sign up, just come.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

This week's Gospel follows close behind the Gospel read last Sunday. It is the last of three questions put to Jesus by Jewish religious leaders who are trying to trick him into saying something that might get him arrested. This reminds us that the context for today's reading is the mounting tension between Jesus and the religious leaders in Jerusalem.

The Herodians and the Pharisees asked the first question, which was about taxes. The Sadducees asked the second question, which was about the Resurrection (see Matthew 22:22-33). The third question, considered in today's Gospel, is asked by a Pharisee who asks Jesus about the greatest of the commandments.

The question requires Jesus to interpret the Law of Moses. The Mosaic Law consists of the Ten Commandments and many additional rules, numbering over six hundred. Adherence to the Mosaic Law, for a devout Jew, is an expression of faithfulness to God's covenant with Israel. The ranking of the Commandments was regularly debated among the teachers of the Law.

Jesus answers the Pharisees' question with a two-fold summary. Jesus says that all of the commandments can be summarized in two commandments: love God and love your neighbor. Both of these were central elements of the religious tradition Jesus learned from his Jewish community. Indeed these continue to be central aspects of contemporary Jewish religious understanding. Jesus' response to his questioners proposed an integral connection between these two aspects of the Jewish Law. Love of God finds its expression in our love for our neighbor.

Knights of Columbus & Ladies Auxiliary Annual Memorial Mass-Sunday, November 1st

Mass will be at 11:00 AM at St. Anthony's Church with the memorial ceremony and lunch at the Sullivan KOC Hall immediately after the Mass. This event remembers all Knights and Ladies of the Sullivan KOC who have passed.

The Knights and Ladies will provide fried chicken, and attendees are asked to bring a covered dish or dessert.

LEGACY SUNDAY

FAITH ACROSS GENERATIONS

— ROMAN CATHOLIC FOUNDATION —

Build a Legacy.

Legacy Sunday is not a fundraiser. It is an educational initiative designed to help us understand the value and impact of planned giving. Whether it's remembering your parish in your will, naming the church as a beneficiary, or exploring other forms of planned gifts, these thoughtful acts of selfless generosity will make a lasting difference in the life of the Church for future generations.
