St. Vincent de Paul Society

Wasn't it nice to have the warmth in our homes this past weekend?

You probably shared a nice meal with your family.

Think of those who are struggling to heat their homes, put food on the table, or pay a utility bill. Your donation to our St. Vincent de Paul Society helps those individuals.

You may donate at anytime by placing a envelope marked for Vincent de Paul in the offertory or dropping it by the rectory. Thank you.

Pastor's Pen

November: The Month of the Holy Souls

This month began with the Solemnity of All Saints on 1 November, followed by the Feast of All Souls on 2 November. "All Saints" refers to all the souls already in Heaven. "All Souls" refers to all the souls in Purgatory who are being purified on their way to Heaven.

We are encouraged to pray especially for our departed loved ones, the Holy Souls in Purgatory, throughout the whole of the month of November. This is the best way to fulfill the Fourth Commandment to honor Father and Mother, and the Great Commandment to Love our Neighbor. Many souls languish in Purgatory because they have no one to pray for them. So this is our opportunity to help them.

A "plenary indulgence," essentially the release of a single soul from Purgatory into Heaven, can be obtained by visiting a cemetery (any cemetery whatsoever, it doesn't have to be Catholic) on any day between November 1 and November 8, and praying devoutly in some way for the departed.

Other prayers during November, especially the offering of a Mass or the offering of your Holy Communion for the sake of the departed, will assist their speedy journey into Heaven.

The Chaplet of St. Gertrude: The World's Largest Prayer Chain

Finally, I offer here a very powerful prayer given to the German Benedictine nun St. Gertrude the Great (1256-1302), which, when recited, is promised to release a thousand souls from Purgatory. If you pray the Rosary substituting this prayer for the fifty "Hail Mary's", you will have prayed what is called the "Chaplet of St. Gertrude," and you will have helped release 50,000 souls from Purgatory.

Not only is this an amazing thought, but keep in mind that once released these souls are in your gratitude to become intercessors for your intentions. Do the math. After praying the "Chaplet of St. Gertrude" every day for a month, you will have amassed an army of 1,500,000 saints to pray on your behalf. In one year's time, you will be commanding an army of almost 20 million saints to pray for you.

Do you believe this is possible? "Let it be done to you according to your Faith" (Matthew 9:27).

THE FUN BUNCH

We are pleased to announce that the first gathering of our parish's new venture in bringing our parishioners together was extremely successful. Twelve individuals attended and we are thrilled with the response. We now have a name—"THE FUN BUNCH." Our next gathering is scheduled for WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8th at 1:00 PM in the old school, lower level. Come and enjoy yourself with THE FUN BUNCH!

PRAYER CHAIN

If anyone is still interested in joining the prayer the Prayer Chain, please contact Sister Joann at 573-468-9044; so your name and number can be included on the information sheet.

Advent By Candlelight

St Anthony will be hosting the Ladies Candlelight Advent dinner on Sunday, December 3rd at 5:00 PM. We need the names of all the ladies who a table hostess so we know how many tables will be needed.

The Hostess duties will include supplying plates, napkins, silverware and decoration for your table. You will invite the ladies to sit at your table. The parish will provide fried chicken and wine. Hostesses are to bring side dishes and/or desserts. The food will be put out for all to share.

Call the rectory at 573-468-6101 to get your name listed as a Hostess.
